

Sherri Reyes, M.A.
Principal Consultant, Behavioral Healthcare

Sherri is a Principal and Behavioral Healthcare Consultant with human eXperience, a design firm dedicated to the belief that every human has value.

With over 25 years of experience as a behavioral healthcare provider and executive, Sherri has become a leading expert at helping owners and design teams create therapeutic spaces that are safe, compliant, functional, and profitable. More importantly, her experience has helped her to understand the unique needs of the behavioral health patient and advocate for them at every step of the process.

Sherri has worked in every capacity from psychotherapist to hospital CEO. Currently, in addition to consulting with human eXperience, she serves as regional operations director for a major healthcare system. In that role, she oversees operational planning and execution, regulatory compliance, and capital projects. Her unique perspective allows her to advise clients early in the process on the operational impacts of design and renovation decisions.
